ACADEMY 1878

HEAD OF ARMY SECTION KELVINSIDE ACADEMY COMBINED CADET FORCE

Kelvinside Academy is seeking an enthusiastic and committed leader to join its Combined Cadet Force as Head of Army Section.

Our thriving CCF plays a valued role in school life, helping pupils develop confidence, resilience, leadership and teamwork through a varied programme of military-themed and adventurous activities.

The successful candidate will lead the Army Section, supporting cadets through weekly training, exercises, camps and ceremonial events. Working closely with the Contingent Commander and adult volunteer staff, you will help deliver an engaging programme that challenges and inspires young people.

The contingent meets every Thursday after school, with additional opportunities including:

- Training weekends
- Field days
- Annual camp
- Remembrance and ceremonial events
- Annual Inspection each June

Applications are welcomed from:

- Current or former CCF officers and adult volunteers
- Current or former members of the Armed Forces
- Reservists
- Teachers
- Individuals with relevant youth leadership experience

Experience of cadet service is desirable but not essential. Training and support will be provided for suitable candidates who demonstrate enthusiasm, leadership potential and a commitment to developing young people.

This is an exciting opportunity to contribute to one of Scotland's leading independent schools while helping shape the next generation of young leaders.

For further information and an informal discussion about the role, please contact:

HOW TO APPLY

Applications are encouraged from individuals of all backgrounds who share our commitment to leadership, inclusion, safeguarding and youth development.

All appointments at Kelvinside Academy are subject to satisfactory clearance through the Disclosure Scotland Protection of Vulnerable Groups Scheme.

Please send your CV and a cover letter to Dan Wyatt, Rector – rector@kelvinside.org
